Principal's Message

My sincerest congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1981-82. Your leadership has provided us with a very successful year and a challenge to the classes of the future. To the entire student body of Lincoln High School — a warm thank you for your devotion, loyalty and dedication! Pride in excellence is the force which has helped the total student body of our school meet the challenges of the individual educational needs of every Lincoln High School student. Our contribution in meeting this challenge has been to provide the inspiration, motivation and expertise for students to work and achieve to their fullest educational potentialities. I hope the Pride in Excellence which you have learned here, will continue to motivate your entire lives.

A very nice young lady who I hope gets everything in life. Sometime I wish we could still have been together so we could have went together. Asha knows we might meet up later in life and not just for a little while.
I wish for the best for you and Richard and I hope that both of you have a great life together and I mean I like you more than ad things I like you going crazy very sweet and smart person so stay that way for me okay, I know that you can do it. Don't get lost on me either keep a good shake and you will have Richard and
